461 E Mitchell Street | 231-347-4337 | crookedtree.org

Shop paintings of Petoskey scenes created this past week by regional artists during the Wet Paint Sale (5-8 pm) on Bidwell Plaza. Artists from the Kitchen Painters will give live demos in the Atrium Gallery and on Bidwell Plaza to celebrate this summer's exhibition, A Full Circle: Summer Up North, Paintings by The Kitchen Painters & Photographs by the Crooked Tree Photographic Society.

Crooked Tree Arts Center (CTAC) features four galleries with rotating exhibitions of local, regional, and nationally acclaimed artists. A 220-seat theater presents performances and lectures. Originally constructed in 1890, the beautifully restored CTAC is a hub for creative activities, workshops, and classes.
