PENNY CRIM

Volunteer of the Year PETOSKEY

If you have visited Crooked Tree Arts Center over the years, you have no doubt crossed paths with this year's Volunteer of the Year for Petoskey—the one and only Penny Crim.

You'll often find Penny behind the front desk—where two days a week she greets guests, helps answer the busy phone lines, and updates records in our customer database.

When not at the front desk, you'll likely find Penny stuffing an endless supply of envelopes with membership or thank you letters.

In addition to "administration" help, Penny regularly graces the registration desk at our annual events, greeting and checking in guests.

It's often the quiet, behind-the-scenes volunteers who do the most—more than we realize! So this year we want to make sure Penny knows how much she is appreciated.

Next time you see Penny at the front desk, or open a letter from CTAC, be sure to give a nod to one of the volunteers who makes it all happen.

PAUL LAPORTE

Volunteer of the Year TRAVERSE CITY

While Paul LaPorte's service to the arts stretches back many years and includes many highlights, his efforts on behalf of CTAC during the past year were nothing short of herculean, and make him an exemplary recipient of the honor of Volunteer of the Year.

As the Paint Grand Traverse housing committee chair, Paul coordinated donated housing for over two dozen visiting featured artists in host homes. In a normal year, this is a big job.

In 2021, faced with a tight timeline and the uncertainties of the COVID-19 pandemic, Paul pulled off the impossible. Paul also lends his time and charisma to CTAC's marketing efforts, booking radio interviews to promote our major events.

Artists, volunteers, and CTAC staff are always delighted by the conscientiousness, affability, and humor Paul brings to his volunteer role. In Paul we have a trusted advisor, cheerleader, stalwart supporter, fellow artist, and friend.

Thank you to Paul, and his lovely wife Carol, for all they do for the arts in northern Michigan.
